

SAVE THE DATE!
SUNDAY MARCH 14, 2010

KANSAS CITY
STRING QUARTET

PROGRAM™

HOSTS TRAILBLAZING ARTISTS FOR A MUST-SEE BENEFIT CONCERT!

Centennial Hall at Pembroke Hill • 5121 State Line Rd., KCMO

Performing over 100 concerts per season around the world for the last several years, cellist Matt Haimovitz is one of the few classical artists regularly selling out concert halls - and rock 'n roll clubs. His passion, imagination, innovation, and ability to reach out to a broad audience has catapulted him to a legendary status in the music world.

Andy Simionescu Romanian-born violinist whose performances have been praised by critics for their "passion" and "elegance" and have taken him to the stages of Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Vienna's Musikverein, Tokyo's Casals Hall and throughout the United States, Europe and the Far East.

Internationally acclaimed violist and recipient of the Young Artist Award, Nokuthula "Thula" Ngwenyama draws reviews of "Dazzling", "Mesmerizing", "Incendiary"! Thula makes her Kansas City debut with this unforgettable benefit concert.

Elizabeth Suh Lane serves as Artistic Director and head of faculty at the Kansas City String Quartet Program. Elizabeth is also the founder and Executive-Artistic Director of the Bach Aria Soloists.

Celebrating 17 Sensational Seasons

www.kcstringquartet.org